Someone told me the story about the man who always complained. As a matter of fact, his wife said, "I can never really make him happy or satisfy him. He finds something to complain about in every situation." She told the story that one rainy Saturday morning she got up rather early. She said, "Now, John, you just stay in bed this morning, and I'm going to serve your breakfast in bed. How do you want your eggs?" He said, "Well just scramble one and fry one." She went to the kitchen and prepared the two eggs to perfection – one scrambled and one fried, and then took them back into the bedroom and put them before her husband. He looked up with a big frown on his face. She exclaimed, "For heaven's sake, John, what's the matter?" He growled, "You fried the wrong egg!".....I know what some of you would say and do!!

May we never let our attitude determine the kind of day we'll have. Even more, may we check our attitude about our Lord and His church. Our future and the church's will be determined by how we decide to attend, to serve, to support with our resources, and to pray each and every day. May we never take our blessings for granted.

You can take the worst sort of a situation and it can become a good experience in your life if you'll let God come in. Sometimes we are disappointed, but God uses our disappointments to make us reach higher and know more about the real joys of life; and the classic example is the cross. To some it was a stumbling block, but the cross – the ugly cross – God took it and made out of it the greatest spiritual power plant in the world. A bad situation can count for the good in your life. Thank God for that.

Please give some prayer and thought on how you could HELP our Vacation Bible School on July 10-14. Each one of us has a part to play in this great event. We are searching for ways to reach out, and there is no greater way than a VBS.

The summer is quickly approaching and there is a spot for each and every one of us. May we serve with a smile and open heart.

Paul described God’s Gift as indescribable. Beyond all the excellent words that we have available to us, Jesus and the indwelling spirit of God can change our “normal” personality. When we have the spirit of God indwelling and live out the good news of Christ, the fruits of the spirit become evident to others. People that are around us experience love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, gentleness and self-control. These people become thankful to God for our presence, our obedience and our service! Jesus is an indescribable gift from God. Are you thankful to God that Jesus is indescribable for you?

2 Corinthians 9

¹² This service that you perform is not only supplying the needs of the Lord’s people but is also overflowing in many expressions of thanks to God. ¹³ Because of the service by which you have proved yourselves, others will praise God for the obedience that accompanies your confession of the gospel of Christ, and for your generosity in sharing with them and with everyone else. ¹⁴ And in their prayers for you their hearts will go out to you, because of the surpassing grace God has given you. ¹⁵ Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift!
